

Eileen Gleimer
Partner

Crowell & Moring, LLP

Eileen Gleimer is a Partner at Crowell & Moring LLP in Washington, DC where she specializes in aviation law with an emphasis in business aviation. Eileen represents large and small businesses as well as individuals in connection with the ownership, operation and management of business aircraft and fractional interests. She spends most of her time advising and assisting her clients in the purchase, sale, lease and financing of business aircraft and the regulatory issues relating to the operation of the aircraft as well as the development of guidelines for the use of the aircraft.

Eileen is a member of the NBAA Tax Committee, NBAA Regulatory Issues Advisory Group, NATA Air Charter Committee and the Board of Advisors of the Journal of Air Law & Commerce. Eileen also participated in the FAA Part 135/125 Aviation Rulemaking Committee established by the FAA Administrator to review and revise existing regulations governing Part 135 air carriers and the Fractional Ownership Aviation Rulemaking Committee that developed the recommendations which form the basis of the regulations governing fractional ownership.

Eileen is a guest speaker at many business aviation conferences and has published several articles relating to corporate aviation and fractional ownership.